Farrell and Doyle Keep Up Their Fine Bat Work, Ably Assisted by Van Haltren.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, May 26 .- "Lucky Saturday" is how the real intensified cranks now look upon the closing day of the week whenever the New Yorks have an engagement on the home grounds. Just give the Giants an-other such chance as they got over in blastern Park yesterday and it can be called any kind of a Saturday at all.. Now that the Giants have won two parties in succession, the spirits of their

An error of Murphy's in fumbling if Tredway's hard bounder put Tred at first. Schoch foul filed to Doyle, and Murphy atoned for his little error by backing Dayle's overthrow to third. If the Tot hadn't stopped it two runs sure would have been sent in.

Shindle singled past second to centre, and Corcoran scored. Tredway was caught between second and third and put out on Van Haltren's throw. One can put out on Van Haltren's throw. One run.

Murphy was fortunate, Dalley muffing his third strike, and the atom trotted to first. Davis's hit to Daly forced Murphy at second. Doyle's slow grounder to Daly was badly handled by Daly, who threw slowly to Fouts. Davis scored on Van Haltren's hit to second. Daly again fumbling and enabling Doyle to creep up to third, and in the effort to nab Jack at third, Van scooted along to second. Doyle scored on Ward's sacrifice. Van made third, too. When Doyle got across the plate his suit was a poem of mud, he having to slide to score.

Tiernan base on balls. He stole second. Burke dropped one in short centre which was just good enough to send Van Haltren and Tiernan over the plate. On Farrell's lovely two-baser to the left field bleachers fence Burke dashed homeward. Well, well. This wasn't much of a hogkilling for a starter. Meekin filed to Burns. Five runs.

Second Inning-Burns hit to Ward and was out at first. Foutz hit a grounder to Murphy and he, too, was out at first. Dailey out, Ward to Doyle. No runs.

Third Inning—Stein out at first. Daly singled. Corcoran forced Daly at second. Tredway hit a hot one to Ward who didn't hold it and the batter made first, Corcoran getting to second. Schoch filed to Van Haltren. No runs.

Burke out, Shindle to Foutz. Farrell filed to Shindle. Meekin out, Daly to Foutz. No runs.

Fourth Inning—Shindle out, Ward to Dayle. Burns hit to the left field bleachers' fence, good for two bases. Foutz filed out. Dailey out, Meekin to Doyle. No runs.

Foutz filed out. Dalley out, areas to Doyle. No runs.
Murphy rapped a pleasing single to short centre. He was forced at second on Davis's hit to Foutz, who sent it to Corcoran on second. Doyle filed to Tredway. Van Haltren filed to Foutz.

Tredway. Van Haltren filed to Foutz. No runs.
Fifth Inning—Stein filed to Burke. Daly hase on balls. He made third on Corcoran's single and Corcoran got to second as nobody was covering the bag. Daly and Corcoran scored on Tredway's hit to right, but Tiernan threw to Ward, who sent it to Murphy on second, eleverly capturing Tredway. Schoch cut. Ward to Doyle. Two runs. Ward hit to Shindle who threw high and Foutz had to take his foot off the bag to catch it. John was thrown out trying to steal second. Tiernan filed cut. Burke singled. Farreli filed to Shindle. No runs.

Inning-Shindle and Burns each field ropes, scoring Shindle and Burns.

Mr. Nicoli was retained by the R. G. Dun Company to assist the District-Attorney's office in prosecuting Mr. Wiman. Fellows was seen after the conconference, but declined to enter into the deatils of what transpired. In regard to the letter which he received yesterday from Mr. Miman's counsel, ex-Secretary of the Navy Tracy, asking that the date of the trial which was set for Monday next be postponed, the District-Atotrney said he was not certain now that Gen. Tracy would make the motion. "Should he do so," said Col. Fellows, "we shall not oppose it. I do not know what date would be set for the trial in that event. There is a new Terror in town, says the Louisville Courier-Journal.

It goeth forth like a lion, seeking whom it may run down.

It is more to be dreaded than a car of Juggernaut, because it can speed around the square while Juggernaut is turning the corner.

It is more terrible than an army with banners; yes, than an army of nurses with baby buggies.

It is—what need to say—the Woman on a Blcycle.

Pedestrians have some slight protection against the Man on the Blcycle when he goes on a rampage. They can scurry out into the gutter and kick mud at him. They can seramble upon the fence and hurl hard hunks of language at him. They can subsidize a teamster and sie a coal cart on him. They can lug around baseball-bat-walking-canes and knock him out on the fig now and then. They can even carry their guns at half-cock and bring him down on the wing, if quick enough on the trigger.

Second Heat-First, G. R. Swain, Princeton, second, C. H. Judd, U. of P. Time-10 1-5s, Lawson and Whitten also ran.

Third Heat-Won by E. S. Ramsdall, U. of P. Time-10 2-5s. It was a great surprise that neither Harvard, Yale nor Columbia got a man in the finals of the 100-yard.

Sanford, of Yale, who was looked upon as a strong competitor, did not start. He was evidently reserving himself for the longer sprints.

The final result of the running high jump was then announced. The winner was C. J. Paine, jr., Harvard, with 5 feet 10 1-2 inches. Second, G. B. Becker, Cornell, 5 feet 10 inches. E. B. Bloss, Harvard; S. A. Macomber, Brown; N. T. Leslie, U. of P., and E. Burke, Columbia, tied for third place at 5 feet 10 inches. The monster hear of Admiralty Island, Alaska, which had long been a source of terror to the settlers in that locality, was recently killed, and the Alaska News, of Juneau, gives a long account of how the feroclous animal was made to bite the dust.

A party of Indian hunters was organized, and, armed with rifles and a bag of giant powder, started out for the bear's cave. Reaching the place where bruin was quietly sleeping, the leader; an Indian, threw the bag of powder into the cave and then made a dive into the soft snow.

"The b'ar," said one of the hunters, "jumped for the giant and fuse and began to paw it. Zip; boom; bang: B'ar's meat few in all directions. The monster, was blown into blasted meat. The weather was cool but clear, and it was the first time race-goers have seen a patch of blue sky for a week. The Great American Stakes and the Maturity Handicap were the features of the day, and it was expected that the Ruppert cracks would be ridden out in the Great American. Betting was brisk, and the bookies were kept fairly busy during the afternoon. Only seven of the fifteen starters went to the post in the first race, with Potentate a hot favorite. O'Connell was a strong second choice up to a few minutes before post time. Then his owners walked him before the Stewards, claiming that he was lame, and asked permission to withdraw him.

The horse did show a little lameness, but not enough to warrant his being scratched. O'Connell's price jumped a couple of points. Annie Bishop and Sirocco were well played himself fainthearted and gave up the struggle after making the running for half a mile under a cheking pull. Potentate, the favorite had no difficulty in winning, and Peter the Great, an outsider, beat Captain T, for the place.

Sullcross opened a 7 to 5 favorite in the second race, but went back to 5 to 2. Towards the close the money went on and he dropped a couple of points. a strong second choice up to a few min-

The favorite won, and his victory was entirely due to the persistent and deter-mined riding of Hueston.
